

Treaties and Identity

Look at the choice board below and choose 1 item to examine in detail. Collect information so you are able to explain through words and pictures your understanding of how the event or items are important to treaties and the influence it has on Canadian identity. Present what you have learned in an infographic format. An infographic uses pictures and words to make the information presented easy to understand. Choosing a layout that is effective for your information is important because it will help the reader to understand your message.
